- Article 11: Where a shareholder is unable to do so in person, he/she/it may appoint a proxy to attend a Shareholders' Meeting in his/her/its behalf by executing a proxy form printed by the Company stating therein the scope of power authorized to the proxy.
The handling method of the proxy form shall be carried out in accordance with the Company Act and the Regulations Governing the Use of Proxies for Attendance at Shareholders' Meetings of Public Companies from the competent authority.
- Article 12: Unless otherwise provided under Article 179 of the Company Act which sets forth the situation where the shareholder has no voting rights, a shareholder of the Company shall have one vote for each share held by him/her/it.
- Article 13: Unless otherwise provided for in the Company Act, a resolution of a Shareholders' Meeting shall be adopted with consent of the shareholders representing a majority of the voting rights at the meeting attended by shareholders holding a majority of the total issued shares.
The Company shall adopt electronic voting as a form of exercising voting rights. A shareholder exercising voting rights in electronic means shall be deemed to have attended the Shareholders' Meeting in person, and related matters shall be handled in accordance with the law.

Chapter 4 Directors and Audit Committee

- Article 14: The Company has seven to nine Directors who are appointed for tenure of 3 years and may be re-elected for consecutive terms.
The aforesaid Board of Directors must have at least two Independent Directors, whose number shall account for at least one-fifth of all Directors.
As specified in Article 192-1 of the Company Act, the candidate nomination system shall be followed for election of Directors in the Company. The shareholders shall elect Directors from the list of Director candidates.
- Article 15: The Board of Directors is organized by Directors. The Chairman of the Board shall be elected from among the Directors by majority of Directors present at a meeting attended by more than two thirds of Directors. The Chairman shall externally represent the Company.
Unless otherwise provided for by the Company Act, a resolution of the Board of Directors shall be adopted by the consent of a majority of the Directors present in a meeting attended by the majority of the total Directors.
- Article 16: In convening a meeting of the Board of Directors, a notice shall be given to each Director no later than 7 days prior to the scheduled meeting date. However, in the case of urgency, the meeting may be convened at any time.
The aforementioned notice for convening the meeting can be given in writing or via e-mail or fax.

Article 17: In case the Chairman is on leave or unable to perform his duties for cause, his/her representative will be carried out in accordance with Article 208 of the Company Act. If a Director is unavailable to attend a meeting in person, the Director may issue a proxy specifying the scope of the authorized powers to authorize another Director to attend the meeting on the Director's behalf, provided that a Director may represent only one other Director at a meeting.

Article 18: Regardless whether the Company makes profits or suffers loss, the Company may pay the Directors the remunerations for their performance their duties. The Board of Directors is authorized to determine such remunerations based on the extent of involvements of the Company's operation and the value of the contribution of the Directors and the normal rate adopted by other companies in the same industry.

The Company may purchase liability insurance to cover the Directors for the liabilities they shall be responsible while performing their duties pursuant to Corporate Governance Best Practice Principles for TWSE/GTSM Listed Companies. The Board of Directors is delegated to approve the scope of the said insurance.

Article 19: The Company establishes an Audit Committee in compliance with Article 14-4 of the Securities and Exchange Act. The Audit Committee shall consist of all Independent Directors and is responsible to carry out duties of supervisors stipulated in the Company Act, Securities, and Exchange Act and other laws and regulations.

Matters concerning the audit committee members, the exercise of their powers and other compliance issues shall be handled in accordance with relevant laws and regulations. Its organizational regulations shall be established separately by the Board of Directors.

The Company may establish a compensation committee or other functional committees in accordance with laws and regulations or business needs.

Chapter 5 Managers

Article 20: The Company may have managers, and their appointment, dismissal and remuneration shall be conducted in accordance with Article 29 of the Company Act.

Chapter 6 Accounting

Article 21: The Company's Board of Directors shall prepare (1) business report, (2) financial statements and (3) profit distribution or deficit compensation proposal after the end of each fiscal year and forward them to the General Shareholders' Meeting for acceptance pursuant to the law.

Article 22: If the Company makes profits for the current year, it shall set aside between 3% to 10% as employee compensation, and no more than 5% as remunerations of the Directors. However, if the Company still records a cumulative loss, its profit shall first be used to make up the loss.

The recipients of shares or cash for employee's compensation from preceding paragraph may include employees of subsidiaries that meet a certain criteria for control. The Board of Directors or its authorized person will be delegated with the power to decide on the conditions and methods of such share distributions.

Before the establishment of the Company's Audit Committee, remuneration of the Supervisors shall be distributed in accordance with the ratio stated under the Paragraph.

Article 23: At the end of fiscal year, the Company shall first compensate the accumulated losses with profits after tax, if any, before contributing 10% of the remaining net profits as legal capital reserve as well as a certain percentage of the remaining net profits as special capital reserve determined by the competent authority in accordance with the Regulations Governing Stock Exchanges. However, if the legal capital reserve has exceeded the Company's total paid-in capital, no such appropriation will be required. Further plans to allocate the remaining profits after tax, together with the retained net profits earlier at the beginning of the fiscal period and the remaining net profits of the current year shall be proposed and submitted by the Board to the Shareholders' Meeting for its resolution.

In response to economic fluctuations and to maintain a robust financial structure, the Company adopts balanced dividend policy, and the policy for future dividend distribution is as follow: No less than 10% of the distributable earnings will be appropriated as shareholders' dividends and bonuses. Nevertheless, in case the distributable earnings are less than 10% of paid-in capital, the Company may choose not to distribute dividends.

In consideration of a balanced and stable dividend policy, the Company will adequately adopt either share dividends or cash dividends based on investment capital needs and the levels of dilution on the earnings per share (EPS), provided that the cash dividends shall be no less than 10% of the total dividends.

If all or part of the above-mentioned dividends and bonuses are distributed in cash, the board of directors shall be authorized to attend with more than two-thirds of the directors, and more than half of the directors present shall agree to do so, and report to the shareholders meeting. Therefore , Paragraph 1 is not applicable.
